

Future Feminist Archive

Future Feminist Archive is a yearlong project across Australia, in which artists, archivist and art historians engage with archives and collections of all kinds to create exhibitions, workshops, performances and publishing outcomes.

Future Feminist Archive' is, therefore, styled as a "hypothetical" question. The project will forge connections between diverse community histories and current ideas relating to feminism in response to growing interest in the role of archives.

A Contemporary Art and Feminism Calendar enables all projects to promote their Contemporary Art and Feminism events over the year — from Hobart to Wollongong and Newcastle.

PROGRAM OF EVENTS: March 2015
